PREFACE

In compiling the Brown Marsh Church records no attempt to write a history of the church has been made, as that has been very ably done by others.

These records are made available for their historical and genealogical value to those whose families are connected with the Brown Marsh Church, and to those who are interested in Bladen County and her people, past, present and future.

The records from the Session Books have been abstracted only for names, dates and other data of historical interest. The records were copied, as far as possible, exactly as they appear on the original records.

The gravestone records were copied some years ago. There have been others buried since, in both the Brown Marsh and the Clarkton cemeteries. It is my desire that this book will be used to record these additional grave stone records among its pages.

I hope that the publication of these old records will be the means of helping many a person find long wished for data on an old ancestor, or a bit of the history of Bladen County not otherwise available.

NOTE: Where there are double spaces, except for the last four names, there were lines drawn across the record book, which may indicate the persons living within a household.

There are many notations on the original record opposite a name stating "deceased" however, there is no date as to when. Names were also crossed out or marked through. Since there are no dates these notations have not been included.

The handwriting is beautiful, but difficult to read and the ink is fading. However there is so much of Bladen County History and her people who have gone out from the Brown Marsh Congregation, I felt it should be made available to those who are interested in Bladen County History.

Sept. 30, 1864. Col. Neill Kelly a member of this Session having died recently on motion a committee of three was appointed to prepare a suitable minute relative to his death and report immediately to this meeting, whereupon Malcom McLeod, Jas. McFatter and G. W. Ballantine were appointed as the said committee. The Committee reported the following minutes. Whereas the great Head of the Church has in his unsearchable providence removed from our midst Col. Neill Kelly a highly esteemed member and officer of this church we deem it proper that we leave on record some testimonial of the high regard which we entertained for our departed brother. The deceased died the 10th September 1864 in the 55th year of his age. Thus in the prime of life when he was able to bring to bear in the Counsels of the Church his intellectual powers, naturally strong, well cultivated and enriched by an experience of nearly half a century he was ceased by that fatal disease consumption which preyed upon his vitals for the last two years until at last his constitution gave way and he quietly fell asleep in the arms of Jesus. He left a wife and six children to mourn their loss. In his death the church has lost an exemplary member and an efficient officer, the community has lost one of its most enterprising and accomodating citizens. But we mourn not as those who mourn without hope, for we rejoice in the belief that our brother has been transferred from the Church Militant to the Church Triumphant. Resolved, that these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our session. Also that a copy be sent to the family of the deceased, and also a copy to the North Carolina Presbyterian for publication, with the request that the Wilmington Journal please copy.
